STORIES OF THE STAGE.

Coming Attractions, Gossip In the Lobby and Boxes

"THE HOUSE THAT JACK BUILT."

The rehearsals for the production of "The House That Jack Built" are progressing nicely under the direction of Miss Martin, who is winning all hearts by her charming personality and clever management. The music of this merry opera is tuneful and pretty, and the airs are all bright and catchy. Young folks all over town are singing about "The dear little house, the queer little house that Jack built," "Old King Cole Was a Merry Old Soul," or other jingling melodies. Most of the characters have been assigned, and everything indicates that this will be an entertainment worth coming miles to see. Remember the place is the Paris Grand Opera House, the time Friday evening, June 14th, and Saturday afternoon, June 15th, and for the benefit of the Public Library Fund.

THERE is no reason why any mother should wear herself out by carrying the little darling around in her arms, when J. T. Hinton is selling baby carriages so cheap. 1t

T. H. TARR, JAS. R. STIVERS, Managers.

THE entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. Little menstrual disorders started at that time soon grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are killing graveyards proves this. Wine of Cardui establishes a palatable and natural menstrual flow. When once this important function is started right, a healthy life will usually follow. Many women, young and old, owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. There is nothing like it to give young women freedom from pain and to fit young women for every duty of life. $1.00 bottles at druggists.

Miss Della M. Strayer, Tully, Kan. "I have suffered untold pain at menstrual periods for a long time, was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything. In fact was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui, with Theodore's Black-Draught, when needed, and to-day I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me."

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the Ladies' Department, The Cardui Medicine Sales Company, Champaign, Ill.
